Each product in our lineup reflects our commitment to excellence, sustainability, and the natural goodness of the tropics.

- ✓ Dragon Fruit
- ✓ Mangosteen
- ✓ California Papaya
- ✓ Banyuwangi Orange

Description

A premium tropical fruit with vibrant pink or yellow skin and sweet, refreshing flesh in white or red. Dragon fruit is highly sought after for its unique appearance, mild taste, and rich nutritional profile, including antioxidants and vitamin C, making it ideal for international markets.

Description

Known as the "queen of fruits," mangosteen features a thick purple rind and juicy white segments with a perfect balance of sweet and tangy flavors. This exotic fruit is prized globally for its luxurious taste and high antioxidant content.

California Papaya

Description

Renowned for its sweet flavor, vibrant orange flesh, and smooth texture, California papaya is a versatile fruit popular in the global market. Its long shelf life and rich nutritional benefits, including vitamin A and digestive enzymes, make it a preferred choice for export.

Banyuwangi Orange

Description

A fragrant and flavorful citrus fruit with an easy-to-peel skin and bright orange flesh. Banyuwangi oranges are celebrated for their sweetness, slight tang, and high vitamin C content, making them a popular export for fresh consumption and juicing.
